Description	Spend a magical day of discovery as you set off from Geneva, traveling through breathtaking landscapes toward the awe-inspiring Jungfrau, standing at 3,454 meters—Top of Europe. Wander through Bernese Oberland, crystal water lakes and begin your ascent aboard the Jungfrau journey, climbing through lush valleys and winding alpine roads to reach the highest railway station in Europe, Jungfraujoch. Upon arrival, the breathtaking panorama of the Aletsch Glacier unfolds before you—a vast, sparkling ice flow that stretches across the landscape. Take in the spectacular views from the Sphinx Observatory, where you'll be treated to sweeping vistas of the majestic Eiger, Mönch, and Jungfrau peaks. Wander through the Ice Palace, marveling at the shimmering sculptures, and walk the Ice Tunnel to experience the world of ice up close. Don't miss the Alpine Sensation, an exhibit tracing the rich history of the Jungfrau region. After immersing yourself in the beauty and serenity of the Top of Europe, descend to Interlaken, the charming town nestled between the stunning Lake Thun and Lake Brienz, where you'll have some free time to explore. Stroll along the vibrant streets lined with quaint shops, savor a relaxing coffee by the lakeside, or simply wander the picturesque promenades and admire the panoramic views of the mountains surrounding the town. In the late afternoon, board your bus for a scenic ride back to Geneva, reflecting on the unforgettable experiences of the day. You'll arrive back in Lausanne, with memories of your incredible journey to the top of the Swiss Alps.
