| Description | Discover the Swiss Alps from a unique perspective on a scenic journey through the mountains aboard a panoramic bus with a glass roof. Your local guide will share fascinating stories, insider tips, and highlight the best views along the way, making the trip both informative and unforgettable.Your adventure begins in Grindelwald, a stunning alpine village nestled at the foot of the legendary Eiger North Face. Surrounded by glaciers, lush green meadows, and towering mountain peaks, Grindelwald offers some of the most iconic scenery in Switzerland. Take some time to explore the village, capture breathtaking photos, and breathe in the fresh mountain air—this is your first real taste of the Swiss Alps.Next, you'll continue to Lauterbrunnen, a valley straight out of a postcard and famous for its dramatic cliffs and cascading waterfalls. Known as the "Valley of Waterfalls," Lauterbrunnen is home to around 72 waterfalls tumbling down the mountainsides. Enjoy free time for lunch and exploring—walk through the charming village, admire the impressive Staubbach Falls, and soak in the peaceful alpine atmosphere.The journey then leads to Interlaken, the vibrant town set between the sparkling lakes of Thun and Brienz, with the majestic peaks of Eiger, Mönch, and Jungfrau towering above. Here, you can wander through the Höhematte meadow, enjoy the lively town center, and witness the incredible sight of paragliders drifting down from the sky—one of Interlaken's most famous highlights.Finally, sit back and relax on the panoramic bus as you return |
